BRITAIN & NORTHERN IRELAND

The Department for Business and Trade (DBT) is delighted to invite UK businesses to learn more about opportunities as a result of the UK's accession to the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership (CPTPP), a modern and ambitious trade deal spanning 12 economies across Asia, the Americas, and now Europe.

Following Peru's recent ratification, the UK will soon join the CPTPP. More than 99% of current UK goods exported to CPTPP members will be tariff-free once the deal enters into force on 15 December, offering commercial opportunities for UK manufacturers exporting to potential new markets, and contributing to the government's priority of driving economic growth across the country.

Why join?

- Gain valuable market insights, including trends and opportunities in the manufacturing sector
- Discover why international trade and trade agreements are vital for business growth
- Build your knowledge and discover the practical steps to get you started when it comes to CPTPP
- Find out about the strategic support that you can receive from a local DBT International Trade Adviser
- Have your questions answered during an interactive Q&A session
- Expand your network and engage with like-minded businesses

The event is open to manufacturing businesses from all sectors, including but not limited to:

- Automotive
- Chemicals
- Consumer and retail
- Food and drink
- Medical devices and equipment
- Pharmaceuticals and biotechnology
